The VERNOIS Staff of 1965 presents this book using proverbs—proverbs which we hope will bring you amusement as well as inspiration and serious thought.

As D. March said, "Simple words, short maxims, old sayings, homely truths, are the masters of the world. In them is the hiding of the power that forms the character, controls conduct, and makes individuals and nations what they are. Great reformations, great revolutions in society, great eras in human progress and improvement, start from good words, right words, sound words, spoken in the fitting time, and finding their way to human hearts . . .

Administration

Dear Students:

The responsibility for keeping America strong and for promoting Democracy as a way of life rests with you and the other young people who attend our schools today.

Never forget your obligation to your country and to society. Make the most of your educational opportunities. In so doing, you not only fulfill these obligations, but you also bring rich rewards to yourself.

May I assure you that you have my best wishes always.

"Waitin' for My Dearie"

Tommy and Fiona in love.

"BRIGADOON" is the story of two Americans, Tommy and Jeff, one romantic, the other sarcastic, who wander by chance into the Scottish Highlands Village called Brigadoon, a delightful phantom community of the 17th Century that comes to life one day each century. It is that day now; it is the day of the fair and a wedding. Tommy falls in love with Fiona, who is a beautiful lassie, and Jeff is pursued by the amorous siren named Meg. When the wedding festivities are underway, the jilted suitor, Harry, interrupts the wedding party to declare that he will leave Brigadoon forever. This is the act which would cause the village to vanish forever. When the second act starts, an excited chase is in progress. The romantic American, seeing that this unusual day is drawing to an end, has to make up his mind whether to return to America or to stay forever in this Scottish Shangri-La.

Jilted suitor, Harry is killed as he attempts to leave Brigadoon.

"Go men, spin like a dervish in a screamin' wind"

Halloween Hop!

ILLINOIS LEASE OPERATING INC. Ashley Road 242-0807

Hi-Tri is an organization for all girls of the school. Early in the school year the Hi-Tri Council members present the Initiation Ceremonial. In December, the Christmas Candlelight Supper is held in the cafeteria. Giving gifts to a needy family highlights the program. Other activities include the Halloween Hop, the Mother-Daughter Tea, State Conferences, and the Farewell Breakfast for Senior Girls.

Hi-Tri Sweetheart Dance

Another big event of the year is the Sweetheart Dance to which girl asks boy. The 1964-1965 Sweetheart Dance was attended by about 300 couples—the largest crowd by far to attend a Sweetheart Dance. Music was provided by the well-known Egyptian Combo, and the surprise theme of the dance was "Beaus and Bouquets". Decorations included huge pink and white hearts, a flower-covered wishing well, a basket of flowers hanging above the well, and pink heart-shaped balloons attached to the back of each chair.

"On with the dance! let joy be unconfin'd;
No sleep till morn, when Youth and pleasure meet
To chase the glowing Hours with flying

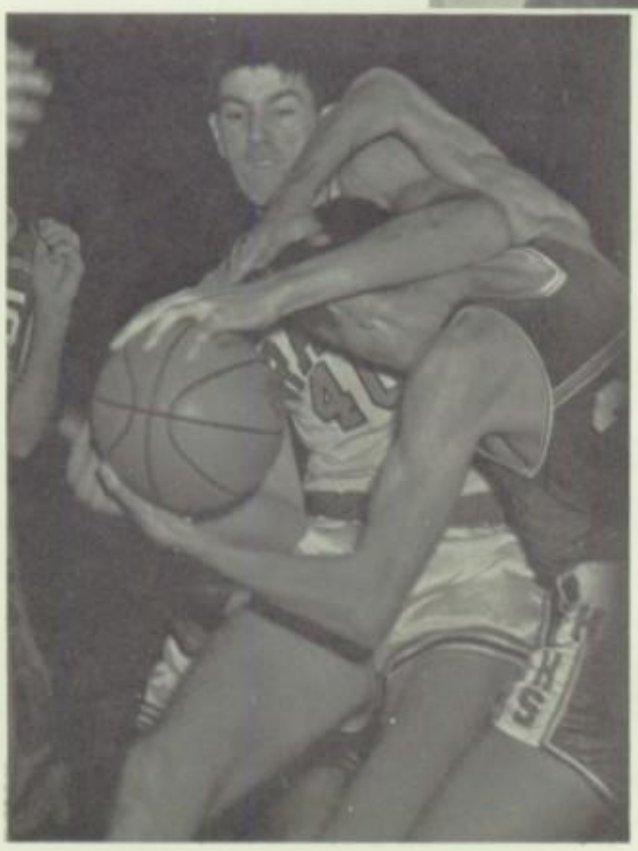
All-Stater, Terry Gamber, receives trophy at Centralia Holiday Tournament.

SOUTH
SEVEN
CO-CHAMPS!



The students of Mt. Vernon Township High School are very proud of our Rams.

This is the first year our team has played in the rough Centralia Holiday Tournament. The Rams came through with the second place trophy. They ended the regular season by tieing Centralia for the South Seven Championship.

The Rams went on to win the Regional title at Fairfield with a 70—35 win over Grayville, 83—63 against Mt. Carmel, and 74—71 above Fairfield. They emerged victorious from the Sectional tournament by knocking out Metropolis and McLeansboro with scores of 62—48 and 42—41 respectively. Winning the Sectional Tournament meant becoming one of the top 16 teams out of 736 who started tournament play. Mt. Vernon fell to Marion 65—57 in the Super Sectional game played at the new sports arena in Carbondale.

We are proud of the team. CONGRATULATIONS, Rams, for a job well done!
